Course Levels Overview

Level	Description
Level 1: Beginner	Learn Hangeul (Korean alphabet), basic greetings, numbers, and simple everyday expressions. No prior knowledge needed.
Level 2: Elementary	Build on your basics with sentence structures, question forms, and useful vocabulary for daily life.
Level 3: Intermediate	Expand your speaking and listening skills with more complex grammar and conversations about familiar topics.
Level 4: Upper Intermediate	Improve fluency, express opinions, and understand longer texts and conversations. Suitable for those with solid foundational skills.
Level 5: Advanced	Deepen your command of Korean through advanced grammar, idiomatic expressions, and cultural nuance. Ideal for those preparing for TOPIK or professional use.
Business Korean	Focus on formal expressions, business etiquette, writing emails, and participating in meetings or presentations in Korean. Great for professionals or students entering the Korean workplace.
